2021 SONOMA COAST PINOT NOIR SONOMA COAST, SONOMA COUNTY

Over the history of Cobb Wines, Ross has had the privilege of working with an array of high-quality vineyards throughout the region. After 20 years of bottling small amounts of single vineyard designates from the appellation, we are excited to release the first blend representing the best from the Sonoma Coast. Having amassed a quiver of different sites on the western edges of the coast, Ross has put together a wine that showcases both his style of wine making, and the cool-climate nature of the Sonoma Coast. This wine is an absolute pleasure, showing giving fruit up front with lots of red notes on the palate and classic structure and acidity that has become a hallmark for Cobb Wines. Though it will age for years like all of Ross's wines, this bottling can be thoroughly enjoyed the year it is released.
